

THE SECFR ANNUAL CONFERENCE SERVICE PROJECT PARTNER FOR 2016 IS:

What is Family Promise of Greater Orlando?

Family Promise of Greater Orlando (FPGO) is a nonprofit, interfaith hospitality network providing temporary assistance, hospitality, and case management for families with children experiencing homelessness. Family Promise provides these services through the participation of local congregations, dedicated staff, and hundreds of volunteers.

Family Promise's Focus:

- We provide shelter, meals, and case management for homeless families with children.
- We strive to help our families regain their financial independence within 90 days.
- We organize congregations to provide shelter, meals, and comprehensive support services to homeless families.
- We promote and support the growth of new communities of congregations.
- We assist in the search for adequate housing and support services for low-income families.

CARD GAME FUN FOR EVERYONE!

Here's How You Can Help:

- Create an Opportunity for Family Togetherness! Pack a favorite card game to donate during the conference! SkipBo, Crazy 8s, Go Fish, Uno...what is your family's favorite?
- Support the Sustainable Work of Family Promise! Through donations by individuals, churches, businesses, and others, Family Promise is able to sustain its work in the Orlando community. Checks should be made out to: Family Promise of Greater Orlando.
